MESSAGE FROM THE SHERIFF

DEPUTY DOGS expands outreach

Look for new Chance office space in future

Since launching our DEPUTY DOGS program on April 13th at the Bell Tower Shops, we have welcomed more than 270 DEPUTY DOG members who are living our motto – See it, Say it, Make the Call. Becoming a member is easy: simply visit www.deputydogs.com, click on the “Become a Deputy Dog” tab to complete and submit the form.

Recently, we have been very busy working with Deputy Chance and our newest addition to the team, Maggie the bloodhound, with creating a great office space where Chance can work with other DEPUTY DOGS. “Deputy Dogs Central” will allow Deputy Chance to teach other DEPUTY DOGS some of what he has learned at the Sheriff’s Office.

Deputy Chance and Maggie were also busy joining me at the Southwest Florida Military Museum’s Cape Coral Memorial Day Parade in May. There, we remembered those who paid the ultimate sacrifice for our great country. Thank you to our many DEPUTY DOGS members who joined us in remembrance.

On another note, we are continuing to hold various seminars and classes preparing the community for various crises. One of which include an active shooter/assailant situation. Although this is something we all hope and pray never happens in our area, it is better to be prepared for the unthinkable.

Don’t let a thief spoil your vacation

The kids are out of school and vacations are being planned. Below are a few quick tips to help protect your home from potential burglars while you are enjoying your family vacation away from home.

- Consider hiring a house or pet sitter: The best way to make sure your house is safe while you are gone is to have someone you trust still living in it. If a relative or trusted friend is available, that is great; if not, there are local services you can use but we suggest you do your research and choose wisely!

- Stop delivery of your mail and newspapers: When you’re leaving for more than a couple of days, contact your local post office to halt mail delivery; if you’re still reading newspaper, make sure you place a hold on the delivery service of your paper because uncollected newspapers alert criminals that you are not at home.

- Make your home looked lived in: To help create the illusion that your home is still occupied, invest in timers that turn on the interior lights for a few hours every evening. You also might consider setting a radio and/or TV on a timer to further the illusion that your home is occupied.

- Check your locks: Take a walk around your home and make sure all of your locks work properly. Burglar-resistant deadbolts and other auxiliary locks should be in place to protect the entry doors and windows on your first floor. Consider turning off your garage door opener and putting up (or down) your hurricane shutters as an added layer of defense.

- Watch your social shares: Though Facebook, Instagram and other social networks have made it easy to keep up with each other, it has also opened the door to a new thief … the “Check-in, Check-out” burglar. They know when you’re not home because you just “checked in” elsewhere. You also do not want to advertise that you are finally heading out to your long anticipated vacation.

You are advertising to the world that you will not be home for a specified amount of time. It is also a good time to educate your children about the importance of being discreet on their social media as well.

To arrange to have someone come out to your community to talk about this or another safety or security topic please contact the Lee County Sheriff’s Office, Community Relations Section at (239) 258-3280.

Are you prepared for an emergency?

Be in the know with free apps

Lee County Emergency Management has two new tools to help residents prepare for and be aware of hurricanes and other emergency situations – the LeePrepares app and the AlertLee system.

LeePrepares

The LeePrepares app – available in Google Play and the App Store – assists individuals and families with preparing for and recovering from all types of disasters that may affect the community.

Features include:
- GPS functionality for locating the user’s Evacuation Zone;
- Real time information from the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) on shelter openings, with mapping/directions and hurricane evacuations;
- Current Emergency (EOC) Activation Level;
- Recovery information on re-entry, curfews, points of distribution, and coping with disasters;
- Sign-up for AlertLee emergency notification system (see below).
- Frequently Asked Questions;
- Links to Special Needs registration for those with special medical needs, and/or transportation needs during an evacuation;
- Family Disaster Plan and Emergency Supply List;
- American Sign Language Disaster Preparedness Videos;
- Current local weather and hazardous weather outlooks.

AlertLee

AlertLee is an emergency notification system that allows registered users to receive telephone, text, and/or email alerts related to natural or man-made emergencies.

The AlertLee system will be used when an emergency arises that you should know about. Severe weather situations, missing persons, evacuation notices, boil water notices, fire or floods and active shooter situations are a few examples of the type of events that may warrant a notification.

To sign up, residents should go to www.AlertLee.com, select their municipality or unincorporated Lee County and complete the registration.

The AlertLee system already includes published, listed landline telephones, but not cell phones or VOIP numbers. To be certain to receive alerts, it is important to register and update the information if it changes. The information will be used only for AlertLee notifications.

There is no charge to register or receive system alerts.

LCSO EMPLOYEES OF THE YEAR

Deputy Ryan Lynn conducted a traffic stop in which a passenger fled. Deputy Lynn detained the driver and additional passengers until more units arrived.

Central District deputies responded to the scene along with Deputy Brian Walkowiak and his K-9 partner Jak. As deputies closed in on his location, they gave multiple orders for the fleeing passenger to drop his firearm, who pointed it at Deputy Lynn and Deputy Walkowiak. Fearing for their own lives, and the lives of fellow deputies, Deputy Lynn and Deputy Walkowiak bravely engaged and fired their weapons, striking the passenger. Deputies were then able to disarm and detain him before administering first-aid.

Crime Scene Technician Christine Althoff responded to a residential fire where she noticed some of the victim’s expensive personal items may be missing. Her efforts helped tie a suspect to the fire. Christine also provided valuable help with identifying skeletal remains in Lehigh Acres.

Roger Gillis became a VOICE member in 2014 and worked out of Central District, where he volunteered more than 1,500 hours. Gillis was diagnosed with terminal cancer, but he did not let that stop him until the end. He is an example to all of us to never give up.

CIVILIAN OF THE QUARTER

Senior Budget Analyst Jill Jones played an active role in the implementation and integration of new software that ties together this agency’s Human Resources, Payroll and Purchasing systems. She is a very hardworking individual who focuses on continuously learning and developing the best practices to manage routine activities. LAW ENFORCEMENT, CORRECTION DEPUTIES OF THE QUARTER

Detective Thomas Rall is the deputy of the quarter for recent actions he took to de-escalate an armed, suicidal man and search for occupants in a burning residence. Detective Rall confronted the man and ordered him to drop a large kitchen knife to his throat. After Detective Rall talked him down, deputies took the man into custody as a Baker Act. Detective Rall later was on an unrelated call where he learned of a nearby house fire with a resident possibly trapped inside. Detective Rall immediately entered the smoke-filled residence in an attempt to locate the female, who ultimately was found deceased in the bathroom.

Corrections Deputy Andrew Porter was driving on Fort Myers Beach after midnight recently when he observed two Lee County Sheriff’s Office deputies attempting to restrain an individual who had been in a physical altercation. Without hesitation, Deputy Porter stopped his vehicle and assisted in control of the crowd while the officers handcuffed the individual. He later joined in a foot pursuit of a second individual involved in the altercation who ultimately was apprehended.
Even though school is out for the summer, our School Resource Officer’s continue to provide a safe and secure school environment while continuing to build positive relationships between students, parents and law enforcement.

Members of our Youth Services team are busy throughout Lee County engaging with kids at our Summer Youth Programs that provide a fun and educational youth camp for middle school aged students, safeguarding campuses during summer school sessions, as well as checking on juvenile offenders on probation in efforts to minimize juvenile crime. In addition, School Resource Officer’s will receive additional training in Active Shooter, Mindset and Stop the Bleed training before heading back to school in August.

SW Florida Crime Stoppers earns top honors

For the 14th consecutive year, Southwest Florida Crime Stoppers was awarded for being the Most Productive Crime Stoppers program in the entire Southeastern United States at the annual Southeastern Crime Stoppers Association training conference.

The award is based on the number of tips received during 2018, the number of arrests, cases cleared, and the value of drugs and property seized because of the anonymous tips. In addition to the Productivity Award, SWFL Crime Stoppers also earned the Most Creative Advertising Award.

To date, anonymous tips to Southwest Florida Crime Stoppers number well over 75,000, resulting in the closure of more than 20,000 criminal cases.

Tips also have led to the seizure of $18,938,000 in drugs and stolen property. And for those tips, $1.993 million in cash rewards have been approved for payout.

Volunteers honored

At a recent luncheon to honor the hard work and dedication of our 125 V.O.I.C.E. members, Sheriff Carmine Marceno received a check made out to the Lee County Sheriff’s Office for $1.2 million, signifying the amount of money the Sheriff’s Office saved taxpayers by utilizing the skills, talent and time of these awesome volunteers instead of paid personnel.

V.O.I.C.E. volunteers assist both certified and civilian employees in a wide variety of jobs including, traffic control, business and neighborhood patrols, neighborhood canvassing, picking up found property, as well as many clerical and operational support duties.

If you are interested in becoming a part of this select group of individuals, please call (239) 477-1422.
