If the claimant and the pawnbroker do not resolve the matter within 10 days after the receipt of this notice, the claimant may petition the court to order the return of the property.

Florida courts have ruled that law enforcement may no longer recover stolen property from pawnshops and return it to a victim of a crime without providing the broker an opportunity of a hearing.

If your stolen property is found in a pawnshop you may decide to purchase it back or obtain a court order to recover the property.

In order to obtain a court order to recover your property, you will need to file a petition for return of the property with the Clerk of the County Court. It is recommended that you seek legal assistance to file the petition.

The Florida Pawnbroking Act states:

- To obtain possession of stolen property held by a pawnbroker, the victim must notify the broker by certified mail, return receipt requested, or in person, evidenced by a signed notice. (You may use the claim notice form attached to this brochure.)
- The notice must contain a description of the property and must be accompanied by a copy of the law enforcement agency's report of the theft.

If you reported a crime to the Lee County Sheriff's Office, you may obtain a copy of the report from our Records Division.

The pawnbroker is required to hold the property, until the right to possession is resolved by the parties or by the court.
