Honor Flight #30

We proudly celebrated Honor Flight #30 and the incredible men and women who answered the call to serve our nation. Their courage, sacrifice, and unwavering dedication to protecting our freedoms deserve more than just our gratitude—they deserve a hero's welcome!

As these American heroes embark on a journey of remembrance, reflection, and recognition, we are reminded that freedom is never free.

To our veterans, thank you for your service, your sacrifices, and the legacy you continue to inspire. It is an honor to stand alongside you and celebrate the heroes who have given so much for our country. Welcome home, heroes!

Miromar Outlets Kids Day

The Lee County Sheriff's Office joined families for a fun-filled day featuring crafts, face painting, pizza, and activities for the kids.Our Crisis Care K9 Valor, was also there soaking up plenty of love and pets from some of her youngest fans! Thank you to Miromar Outlets for bringing families together for such a fun and memorable day!

Walk for Wishes at Miromar Outlets

It was a wonderful opportunity to come together as a community to support an amazing cause and help bring hope, strength, and joy to children facing critical illnesses. Every step taken helps make life-changing wishes come true! Robbie the Robot Dog also joined in on the fun, bringing extra smiles and excitement to this special event!

Thank you to everyone who came out to walk, show their support, and help make a difference. Together, we can help turn wishes into reality!

A Spooktacular Time at Gulf Coast Town Center!

Gulf Coast Town Center was filled with Halloween spirit during the Ghosts and Ghouls Candy Crawl! Families and little ghosts, goblins, and superheroes came out dressed in their Halloween best for an evening of trick-or-treating, sweet treats, festive costumes, and community fun!

Crisis Care K9 Rollie joined in on the festivities, making a special appearance in his adorable Winnie the Pooh costume! Rollie enjoyed meeting families, posing for photos, and spreading plenty of smiles and tail wags throughout the event!

A huge thank you to Gulf Coast Town Center for bringing our community together for such a fun-filled Halloween celebration!

Edison Mall Candy Crawl!

Our team had a fang-tastic time participating in the Edison Mall Candy Crawl!

It was a sweet opportunity to connect with our community, share some smiles, and enjoy the Halloween spirit.

From adorable costumes to happy faces and plenty of candy, it was a spooktacular time for everyone!

Happy Halloween! We hope your day is full of treats and frightfully good fun!

Florida Autism Center's Trunk-or-Treat

The Florida Autism Center hosted a special! Trunk-or-Treat for its students and families, and LCSO was happy to join the fun! Our ice cream truck brought sweet treats, big smiles, and a little extra joy to the celebration.

Not even rain couldn't stop this sweet community connection!
